

SLPTG Code of Conduct

All members undertake to:

1. not use our logos and marks other than in the manner prescribed
2. not communicate with the press or other media, including social media and other means of digital communication, on behalf, or purporting to be on behalf, of SLPTG without the express written permission of Council
3. follow and comply with any instruction, guidance or advice issued by the Training Group or provide just cause for failing to do so
4. notify the Training Group of any matter which might adversely affect the reputation of the industry or the Training Group
5. as an elected officer to fulfil your duties with objectivity, to the best of your ability, and in the interests of the Training Group and the industry as a whole, without fear or favour
6. contribute fully to the committees to which you are elected or appointed and to extend mutual respect to your fellow members and Training Group representatives
7. disclose any interest you may have in any subject, motion or application under discussion at Council meetings and to disqualify yourself, or to be disqualified, from such discussion, or voting thereon if the Chair deems this appropriate
8. to co-operate fully with the Council of the Training Group, its Officers and representatives, and to provide such information as they may reasonably request or provide just cause for refusing to provide such information
9. not bring the industry or the Training Group into disrepute by your actions or negligence
10. to refrain from anti-competitive or otherwise unlawful behaviour
